ABOUT ODD

We are ODD, and our goal is to provide the best creative solutions for all our clients, residential and/or commercial projects. We are grateful to be able to help many people make their dream projects come to life.

We specialize in architecture, interior design, product design, landscaping and consulting services. We have methodically assembled a team of professionals who offer the technical expertise of structural engineers, the aesthetic sensibilities of architects, the financial acumen of cost estimators, and the practicality of construction managers. We design intelligent, cost effective solutions that ensure their long term durability and safety. In every phase of the process, we make sure our clients benefit from a service that is unrivaled.

EDEN RESEDENCIA

Based in the suburban Islamabad, Eden Life is a Residential society. Eden Resedencia is the 10-Marla model house.

Built on modern lines the house is especially designed for the everyday local family. Considering the contextual context of the site and the existing parameters the interior setting has been made to cater to every mood. Selection of materials and colours have been kept neutral.

The internal spaces have been designed in tone with keeping a spacious and continuous living environment. From flooring to walling, materials have been carefully selected as to cater to the seamless intent of design.

BAHRIA TOWN - C&C

Bahria Command and Control Centre is the animus room which controls the surveillance of entire Bahria town.

Situated in Bahria Civic Centre, the animus room has to cater to its required staff and technical equipment. With a fixed program and a specified quota of authorized personel allowed in the vicinity the site holds a challenge in relation to designing for everyday tasks; ergo considering the circulation, routines, timings of shifts etc.

The interior spaces have been kept in line with circulation of staff. Keeping a safe and easy working space. Catering to the corporate mood of the program, colors and materials have been carefully selected for effecient and functional purposes.

KALDI'S COFFEE

Located in the midst of Nathia Gali main bazaar, Kaldi's is a one of a kind Gourmet Coffee House that caters to the everyday customer for casual munching.

The existing structure remains intact. The exterior and interior finishing and overall ambiance has been designed by ODD. Considering the requirements and the local market, the design is kept minimalist with straight lines.

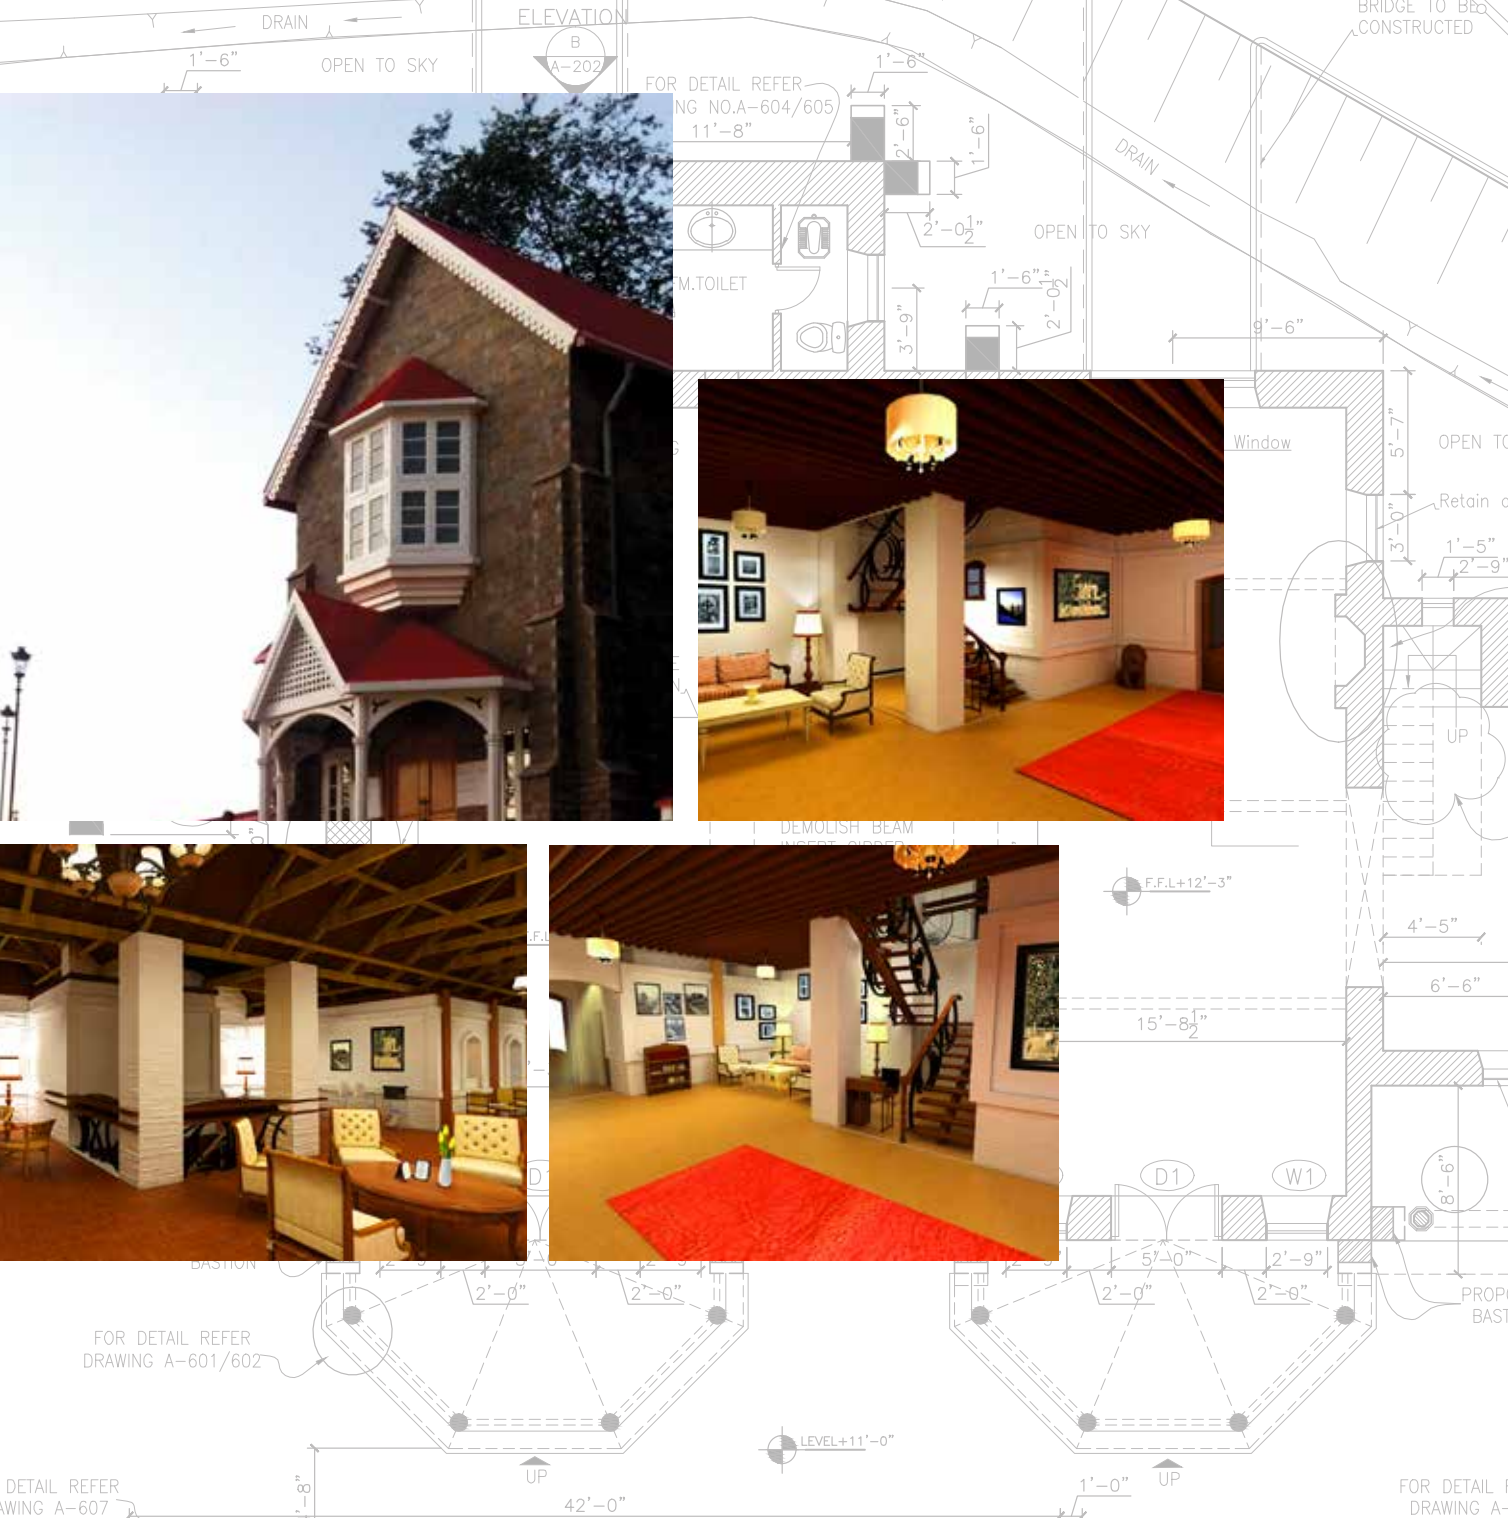

The interior space caters to the staff and the end user in a circulation friendly environment. Caring for the limited space, the design has been kept open and welcoming. Providing a cosy ambiance for enjoying one's coffee.
